It's a New Way of Life

Some Say We Are to Be "Angels of Mercy"

"Young Men and Women In White" BUT for US .....

A New Experience

What Will I Leave Behind?

What Will I Take With Me?

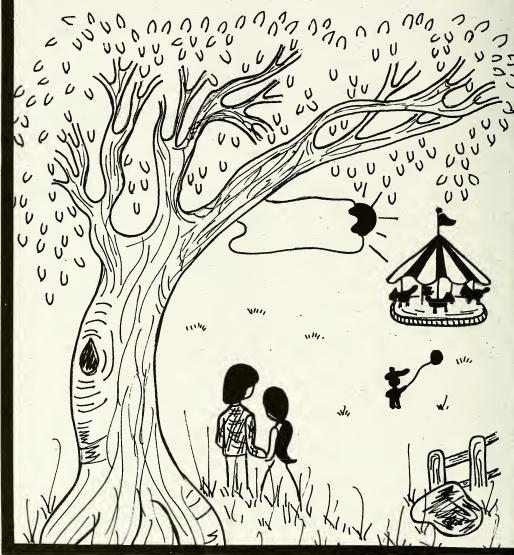

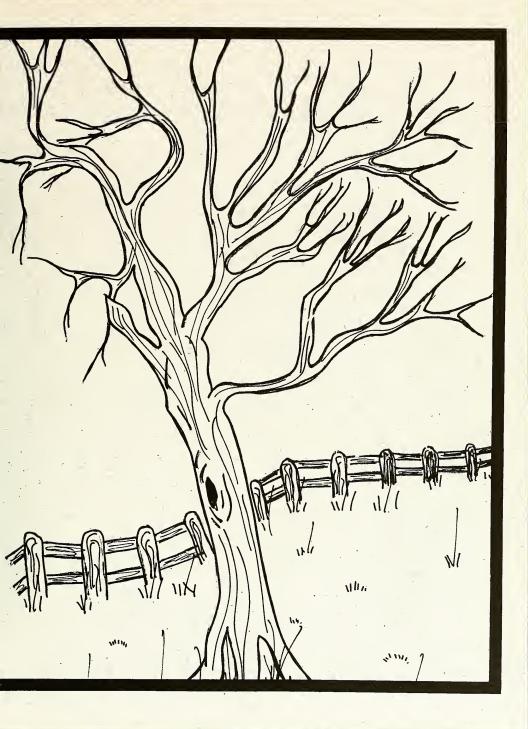

Should I Go Fast
Trying to Hurry
Through the Painful Situations?

Or Should I Go Slow, Making Each Minute Count, Leaving as Much as I Take.

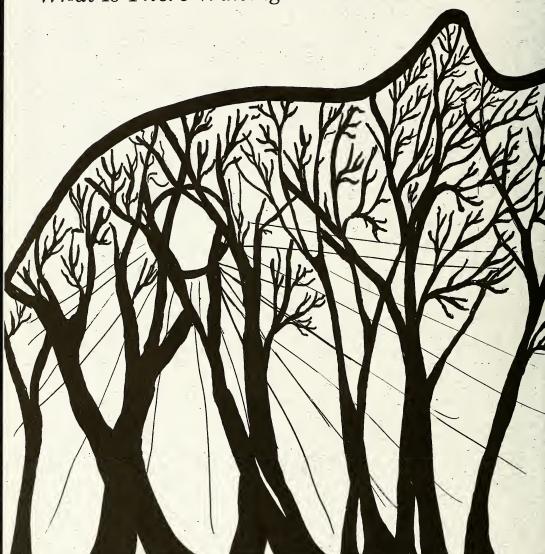

For Every Tear I See to Make a Smile, for Every Hand That Reaches Out To Give a Little of Myself in Return.

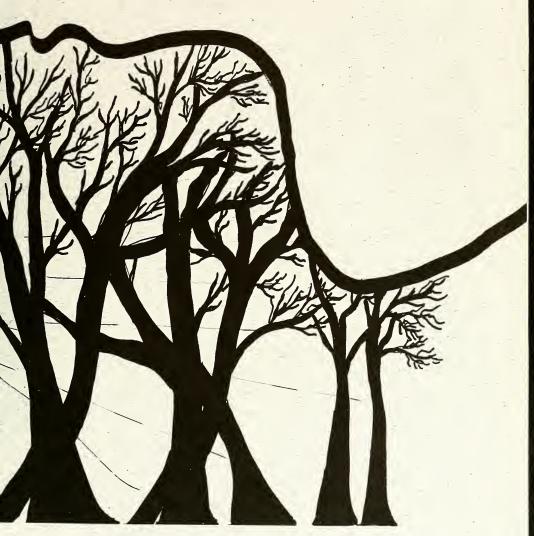

Oh ..... But We've Only Just Begun What Is There Waiting For Me?

Can I Make it?

Learning From My Mistakes and From Others, Taking One Experience at a Time.

Living,
Loving,
Being Myself.....

I Can Make It For I've Only Just Begun To Touch Tomorrow

"Between the entrance exam and the R. N. comes the student nurse." Now these girls are at the end of that life starting on as graduates and soon to be R. N.'s. This moment is no doubt one of the shakier ones in this portion of their lives. Not even pouring up the first medications or giving the first injection was this nerve racking. No, now they don't have the instructor to lean on or to turn to. Their decisions must sometimes be quick and always for the patient's good; and we are proud to say to the 1971 graduate . . . You Can!!!

Three awards are given each year: Miss Vicki Almond received the Highest Scholastic Award and Best All Around Award; Mrs. Kathy Whittington received the Surgery Award.

DEDICATION

Dedication

She goes that little extra mile to put the human touch into her nursing care. She is always there when she is needed. She starts early in the morning and by three thirty in the afternoon is still continuing her steady pace.

Our freshman year she worked diligently with those little girls who had so much trouble figuring out how many minims a cc equals. She always gave us that second chance.

. . . And then there was the famous spaghetti supper. . . she worked in the kitchen all day until every strand of spaghetti was eaten.

Her sincerity and interest in students is reflected by her efforts to bridge the generation gap.

For three years we have seen her give of herself and to do this willingly. We have been touched by her ways and mannerisms. For this we are grateful. So to you, MRS. LOUISE CLONTZ we the Senior Class of 1972 dedicate the 1972 CAP AND PIN.

APPRECIATION

Appreciation

It was in the fall of '69 when we tearfully said good-bye to them. For us it was cutting the apron strings, yet for them they were losing a part of their lives.

To us the excitement of leaving home and being on our own was at hand but for them fears crowded their minds - Would they eat right? Would they get enough rest? Who would wash and iron their clothes? Who would treat their colds? Who would be there when they needed someone who really cared?

For three long years they have stood by us, sent us letters and given praise of our accomplishments. And now that we are drawing closer to our goal, we look back on them, the ones who have been responsible, those who have set the examples and those who have continued to give their love.

In recognition of their concern, we the Senior Class of 1972 deeply extend our appreciation to you, our parents.

Dr. Barry Hawkins Student Health Physician

How many other doctors would take time out from their busy schedule to hear a bunch of student nurses complain of aches and pains? It couldn't be anyone else but Dr. Hawkins. Just knowing his concern for you makes you feel better.

HEALTH SERVICES

Miss Edith Dennis

At least every student has traveled the yellow brick road which leads to the office of Miss Dennis. We are not searching for a way oack nome, a heart, a brain, or courage but a return to normal health and Miss Dennis is always there to help us.

SECRETARIES

Without this lady the school of nursing would run a little less efficiently. For your time and effort on our behalf, we thank-you - Mrs. Hilda Gibbons.

These ladies also help - typing out tests, schedules and keeping us supplied with different necessary papers. Thanks to you - Mrs. Alice Stokes and Mrs. Ann Long.

HOUSEMOTHERS

Mrs. Naomi Eudy

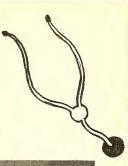

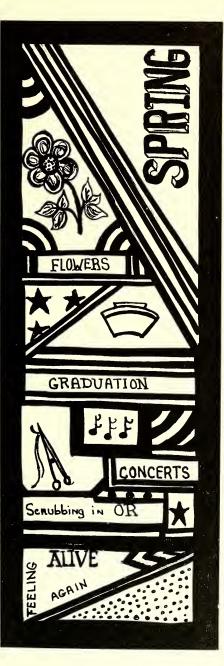

We would like to express our appreciation to all of the doctors for putting up with our questions, our slowness and even at times our fumbling mistakes. . .

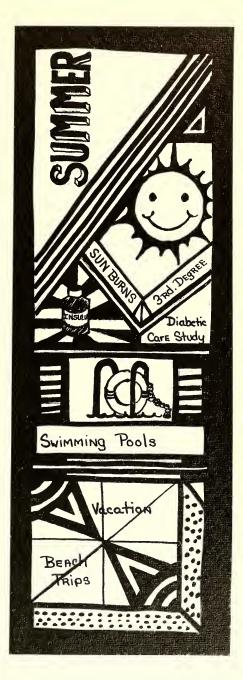

If your picture is not among these, it's not because we don't appreciate you, it's because we could not find you.'

FALL

QUEEN OF ### FALL FESTIVAL

It's November the 6th, 8 a.m.-students are raking leaves, setting up booths, getting food ready. What could cause all of this commotion? The Fall Festival. A yearly effort of the students to raise money for the annual. The highlight of the event was the crowning of the Fall Festival Queen, Miss Debbie Brackens. The '71 event was concluded with tired feet and aching backs.

HER COURT

CHRISTMAS

DANCE

CHRISTMAS QUEEN

An unusually warm evening, holly, candles, dim lights, scrumptious refreshments, all helped to create the festive mood for our 1971 Christmas Dance.

Cool, groovy, fast, slow, inspiring, up-lifting, soulfully dynamic-who could be all of these things? Brotus Jackson and the Magnificents, the outa-sight group who performed at our dance. The highlight of the dance was the crowning of our Christmas Queen 1971, Miss Jan Shore.

Little Pillow Men

The Nurses! March

Henry and Eliza

Fall is here, with it comes a new group of students. These girls are here hoping to achieve their goal and become a good nurse. Amidst studies, picnics and parties they learn. They learn more of life and what a life means to them.

Winter brings sparkling snow and with it a hope of a new year. Snowball fights, more studies and spaghetti suppers help pass the time. Becoming more aware of patients' needs and how to meet them; they are ready now for any challenge.

Spring blossoms in full glory. Flowers and trees, people are becoming more aware of their beauty. Spring concerts, getting our spring and summer clothes out, long walks during P.E. and Easter break helps bring about still more changes.

Although summer here at school is short; much is crammed into it. Lots of studies, diabetic care studies, cardiac team, still remembering. . .

graduation. The swimming pool is busy, the sun porch is used, sunburns are nursed (and scrubbing for surgery on sunburns is no fun!)
Then at last, the final exams taken and vacation begins.

EPILOGUE

It was only a year, a beginning and an end, but the things that are in the middle - that's what counts. A mixture of studying, friendship, learning to live with each other and the world; not just one big experience but many little experiences, all part of the memories of CMH. We've only just begun to learn to be an individual, to accept and forgive the things we once could not understand . . . to know the difference between right and wrong . . . to love . . . to care!

To everyone who gave of themselves to create the '72 Cap and Pin we offer our sincerest appreciation and thanks. To those who tolerated us through four deadlines and millions of gripes, we thank for the shoulder on which we leaned and cried so many times. To the entire student body for making the book possible by your hard work and support of the Fall Festival, we offer our thanks.

A special thanks to:

Susan Campbell for her knowledge and guidance during our night and weekend sessions;

Brenda Furr for her continuous work:

Peggy Snider for trying to satisfy our needs with pictures;

Mrs. Nancy Hood and Miss Carrie Young for their devotion and concern; and our staff for their untiring work, with little recognition, but invaluable service.

We cannot close without offering our sinceest appreciation to Mr. Jim Wilhelm who answered endless questions about endless ideas and Mr. Ken Ballard who photographed, posed, and listened to our gripes at our convenience and not his.

Although our book is finished, we hope every student will accept it as her challenge to begin every day with our theme,

We've Only Just Begun. Co-Editors Carelyn Meconay
